

Interesting Articles

Insurance captives' profitability soars

Profitability increased by 49% and policyholder dividends were up 73% for captive insurance entities followed by rating analysts at A.M. Best in 2010.

Workers' compensation claim frequency increased in 2010

Claim frequency for workers' compensation injuries increased 3% in 2010, marking the first increase since 1997.

At-home workers create new risks for employers

As more companies allow their workforces to move from cubicles to home offices, risk management plans may not be keeping up with the exposures related to at-home worker

Medical malpractice insurers enjoying high profits

Thanks to tort reform & patient safety improvements, medical malpractice insurers are performing well despite losing premium volume.